Diploma in Counsellor Supervision

Supervision Training

This course is for experienced Counsellors who wish to train as Supervisors. It has been designed to meet the current criteria for the IACP, IAHIP, IAAAC and IACC (100 hours over one year). It is also COSCA validated.

It is integrative, based primarily of the Cyclical Model of Supervision by Page and Woskett and provides a clear and comprehensive structure for working with Counsellors on their Client work.

The course also looks at the Process Model, group supervision, ethical dilemmas, practical issues, legal issues, and also has lots of creative methods that inject energy into the work and unblock "stuckness".
